BOND

In a sentence, summarize the people, places, or things that are especially important to the NPC. The NPC Bonds table offers suggestions in broad categories.

The character backgrounds in the Player's Handbook explore bonds in more detail, and player characters who uncover an NPC's bond can use what they've learned to influence the NPC in a social interaction (as discussed in chapter 8).

NPC BONDS

d10 Bond

- 1 Dedicated to fulfilling a personal life goal

- 6 Drawn to a special place
- 7 Protective of a sentimental keepsake
- 8 Protective of a valuable possession
- 9 Out for revenge
- 10 Roll twice, ignoring results of 10

FLAW OR SECRET

In one sentence, describe the NPC's flaw—some element of the character's personality or history that could potentially undermine the character—or a secret that the NPC is trying to hide.

The NPC Flaws and Secrets table provides several ideas. The backgrounds in the Player's Handbook can be used to create more detailed flaws. Player characters who uncover an NPC's flaw or secret can use what they've learned to influence the NPC in a social interaction (as discussed in chapter 8).

- 12 Foolhardy bravery

MONSTERS AS NPCs

Named monsters that play a significant role in an adventure deserve the same attention you would give to a humanoid NPC, with mannerisms as well as ideals, bonds, flaws, and secrets. If a beholder mastermind is behind the criminal activities in a city, don't rely solely on the entry in the Monster Manual to describe the creature's appearance and personality. Take the
